Health and Safety General Policy Statement

Hillstone Products Ltd

At Hillstone Products Ltd we recognise our duties under current health and safety legislation and we endeavour to meet the requirements of this legislation and maintain a safe and healthy working environment. Our Managers and Supervisors are informed of their responsibilities to ensure they take all reasonable precautions, to ensure the safety, health and welfare of those that are likely to be affected by the operation of our business.

Hillstone Products Ltd recognises its duty to make regular assessments of the hazards and risks created in the course of our business.

We also recognise our duty, so far as reasonably practicable:

- To meet our legal obligations to maintain safe and healthy working conditions;
- To provide adequate control of health and safety risks so identified;
- To consult with our employees on matters affecting their health and safety;
- To provide and maintain safe plant and equipment;
- To ensure the safe handling and use of substances;
- To provide information, instruction and training where necessary for our workforce, taking account of any who do not have English as their first language;
- To ensure that all workers are competent to do their work, and give them appropriate training;
- To prevent accidents and cases of work related ill health;
- To achieve manage and supervise health and safety at work;
- To have access to competent advice;
- To seek continuous improvement in our health and safety performance and management through regular (at least annual) review and revision of this policy;
- To provide the resources required to make this policy and our Health and Safety arrangements effective.

We also recognise;

- Our duty to co-operate and work with other employers when we work at premises or sites under their control to ensure to continued health and safety of all those at work;
- Our duty to co-operate and work with other employers and their workers, when their workers come onto our premises or sites to do work for us, to ensure the health and safety of everyone at work.

To help achieve our objectives and ensure our employees recognise their duties under the health and safety legislation whilst at work, we will also inform them of their duty to take reasonable care for themselves and for others who might be affected by their activities. We achieve this by explaining their duty and setting out our company health and safety rules in an Employee Safety Handbook which is made available to every worker employed by Hillstone Products Ltd.

In support of this policy a responsibility chart and more detailed arrangements have been prepared.
